About me

My name is Dava Alifio Bolivar currently studying for a bachelor's degree majoring in Computer Science at Bina Nusantara University. I describe myself as a passionated, motivated, teamwork-oriented, responsible, and self-confident person.

I like to make project especially on constructing UI/UX Design and able to do that using Figma. Currently, I'm studying Laravel framework and soon I will write the code using it.

Outside my work, I like cycling or other sports to spend my free time and also i like to meet a new friends too.
